Customer Reviews

Thought provoking, gritty, with a feel good ending! The main characters are well developed and real; they elicit strong emotion as you get to know them. "Off the Chain" shows that adversity is often the catalyst that enables strong people to find their way to the written Word and build a relationship with the Divine. I will be recommending this book.

If you trust and believe in him. Your whole life will change you will be made brand new and miracles are just a confirmation of his love.

This book is phenomenal. Very creative and suspenseful. A must read.

Good Christian read.

I enjoyed reading about the soon to change Lorelei Sampson after reading about her character in the first book. She was truly off the chain...but God! This series has been a blessing to read and there is some scripture mentioned that I am going to meditate on for myself. It was a nice love story without the raunchy details, but realistic enough for you to understand the struggle of trying to live according to God when the flesh is weak and tempting! Looking for more from this author.

Lorelei was something else! I enjoyed watching her transformation in the story. It showed how God can transform our old trashy lives to a great treasure when we commit our lives to Him. It was kind of amazing to see how He had already lined everything up even before she changed.

This book was incredible. I could not put it down. It was intriguing and inspirational.

Good read with a strong Christian message.
