I loved all of them. Very captivating.

An intriguing set of books that will keep you enthralled. I had previously read three of the books who happened to be written by three of my favorite authors, Christina McKnight, Callie Hutton, and Amanda Mariel. One of the other books is a start of a series, which I will definitely be following up on, by Lauren Smith. The book is a collaboration between some must read authors that I highly recommend.

I think this was a very entertaining collection of books. There were no loose ends. There were no sudden stops. There was a little humor, a little mystery, a tad of magic and whales of tales. It is a little sensual if that offends you. But the stories are good.

All the stories reel you in, the characters well written. K enjoyed the last to stories the best. I had already read a cpl of them individually, so enjoyed rereading them again. If you are looking for a great bargain 7 great stories in one, this is the book for you. You may even discover the great authors you may not otherwise have known about.
