Baltimore Unanchor Travel Guide - A Harbor, Parks, History, Seafood & Art - 3-Day Itinerary

Synopsis

A Harbor, Parks, History, Seafood & Art - 3-Day Baltimore Itinerary Welcome to Baltimore, Maryland! Or, as locals call it, "Bawlmorë, Merlín." Get ready to immerse yourself in the blend of a diverse city full of quirky surprises and deep historical roots. Baltimore, the central hub of The Old Line State, is a symbolic bridge of the north and south division and home of the Orioles and Ravens offering a unique combination of urban culture and welcoming hospitality. The city's rich art scene can have you museum hopping for days. From the 40,000 displayed works at the Walters Art Museum to a taste of creativity's more eccentric side at the American Visionary Arts Museum, there is a plethora of treasures to uncover. Any native will tell you that the first dish to try is crabs preferably very well seasoned with Old Bay spice. With this guide, you'll get clued on the best spots to grab a bite, looking over the Inner Harbor or with the neighborhood locals, enjoy the city's hip music scene, or if you're in the mood for something spooky see a ghost in downtown Fells Point, former hangout spot of Edgar Allen Poe, Babe Ruth, and Frederick Douglass. Visit once, visit often. Pack a pair of comfortable shoes along with a sense of adventure and explore the city on foot or bike. Get excited for three days of fun, art, nature, history, great food, good music, and extraordinary memories. This is, after all, America's Charm City! Cover Image Credit: kymagirl (Creative Commons)

Customer Reviews

I travel to Baltimore maybe once a year, and I could have written this guide. It basically covers in a cursory fashion the major attractions like the Aquarium and Fells Point. I had hoped for a few insights that a native might be able to provide. This guide might be valuable to someone who has only a day or two in Baltimore and doesn't want to spend a few bucks more for a more detailed travel guide.
