Steve Alterman is a nature photographer specializing in images of North Carolina's Outer Banks, the American West, and the Hawaiian Islands. His photo contest entries have earned him either first place or grand prize recognition in Hawaii Magazine's photo contests in 1999, 2000, 2001, 2002 and 2003, and his poster of the interior of the Currituck Beach Lighthouse was chosen for display in Washington, DC's Corcoran Gallery of Art.

A beautiful book with wonderful, artful images. I wasn't able to look at the book before I ordered it so I went on the cover and was very happy with what arrived - the photos are beautiful and there was a lot of white space which I wanted because I was using it as my wedding guest book (I was married on OBX). It worked perfectly for what we wanted and I was very happy on my wedding day!

We purchased this book specifically to use as a guestbook for a destination wedding in the Outer Banks. There is ample blank white space around the photographs for our guests to leave notes or comments for us without defacing or detracting from the photographs in the book--which are, in my opinion, quite gorgeous! The book itself seems to be of very nice quality. Overall I would say this is a nice coffee table type book, which proved to be more perfect for our intended use than I even dared hope when I ordered it sight unseen off of . We are more than happy with our purchase!
