

The book was found

The Creators: A History Of Heroes Of The Imagination

Synopsis

By piecing the lives of selected individuals into a grand mosaic, Pulitzer Prize-winning historian Daniel J. Boorstin explores the development of artistic innovation over 3,000 years. A hugely ambitious chronicle of the arts that Boorstin delivers with the scope that made his Discoverers a national bestseller.Â Even as he tells the stories of such individual creators as Homer, Joyce, Giotto, Picasso, Handel, Wagner, and Virginia Woolf, Boorstin assembles them into a grand mosaic of aesthetic and intellectual invention.Â In the process he tells us not only how great art (and great architecture and philosophy) is created, but where it comes from and how it has shaped and mirrored societies from Vedic India to the twentieth-century United States.

Book Information

Paperback: 832 pages

Publisher: Vintage; Reprint edition (September 28, 1993)

Language: English

ISBN-10: 0679743758

ISBN-13: 978-0679743750

Product Dimensions: 5.2 x 1.6 x 8 inches

Shipping Weight: 1.8 pounds (View shipping rates and policies)

Average Customer Review: 4.1 out of 5 stars 61 customer reviews

Best Sellers Rank: #117,269 in Books (See Top 100 in Books) #119 inÂ Books > Politics & Social Sciences > Philosophy > Social Philosophy #348 inÂ Books > Arts & Photography > History & Criticism > Criticism #377 inÂ Books > History > World > Civilization & Culture

Customer Reviews

Historian Daniel J. Boorstin brings his customary depth and range to this compelling book on Western art, taking on everything from European megaliths (Stonehenge, for example) to Benjamin Franklin's autobiography ("the first American addition to world literature"). Boorstin does not aim at being comprehensive--he much prefers to linger over certain "heroes of the imagination" as he surveys human accomplishment in the fields of architecture, music, painting, sculpting, and writing--yet The Creators certainly feels comprehensive, as Boorstin carefully places everything he describes within a grand tradition of aesthetic achievement. Boorstin knows that good history demands good writing, and his prose makes this big book easy to absorb. "This is a story," he writes, "of how creators in all the arts have enlarged, embellished, fantasized, and filigreed our experience"--an apt description of the role art plays in our life and an equally apt description of the way Boorstin interprets it for readers. (The Creators also is the second volume of a trilogy that starts with The Discoverers and concludes with The Seekers, although none of these books requires any knowledge of the others.) --John J. Miller

Boorstin's companion volume to The Discoverers --a one-week PW bestseller and a BOMC main selection in cloth--chronicles 3000 years of artistic invention, while providing entertaining biographical profiles of Dante, Leonardo, Goethe, Ben Franklin, Picasso and dozens more. Copyright 1993 Reed Business Information, Inc.

After reading 'The Discoverers', which I loved, I was disappointed with 'The Creators'. I suspect that Boorstin, who is a brilliant gatherer and expounder of facts, is out of his depth when analyzing the creative instinct. I am particularly interested in music, and I found that he gives brief biographies of Mozart, Beethoven, and Wagner, and some analysis of the SOCIAL impact of their music, but no real analysis of the music itself (e.g. Wagner's revolutionary use of tonality). Without that, I don't think there is much point in writing the book.

For some reason, I thought this book would focus more on the personalities of various "creators" (historically significant composers, painters, writers etc.) and their lives and processes, and less on the pure history of art. So I was a bit disappointed, but, as I said, my expectations were probably off. If you are looking for a good reference book about the history of ideas, creative and otherwise, and the philosophical and intellectual trends that have made the western civilization what it is today -- this is absolutely it! It is thoroughly informative and written in very smooth prose that is easy to read and think about.

Daniel Boorstin is one of my favorite historians. I read his books in the 90s, and although I was well versed in world history, his clear writing style, and unique talent for making the connections between seemingly far flung events, personalities, and creations opened up a new way of thinking about our world and ways we interact with it.

The author (Boorstin) was such a prolific writer that while being grilled by the Senate for confirmation as Librarian of Congress, he was asked if he would write during business hours. He said no, but wrote every evening, late into the nights, and I am grateful that he did so. This book and the others in this series have been around for a while, but the material covered is iconic, and will not go out of date. The organization is lucid, and segues nicely from chapter to chapter. I highly recommend this book and the entire series.

Book came really quickly and in good condition, and it was reasonably priced. Thanks!

Fabulous! Daniel Boorstin's gift to the curious and knowledge-seeking soul. Together with Discoverers and Seekers, this book forms a formidable trilogy that should be the dream of any writer. Encyclopedic in its sweep and brilliant in detail, a rarely achieved feat

Great book but words to small for vision

A superb author who brings unique insight to historical individuals and events. It is so well written and a pleasure to read. And undoubtedly your knowledge of humankind will expand exponentially.

Download to continue reading...

The Creators: A History of Heroes of the Imagination World History, Ancient History, Asian History, United States History, European History, Russian History, Indian History, African History. (world history) Sculpting from the Imagination: ZBrush (Sketching from the Imagination) Imagination Station Books 3-Pack: The Redcoats Are Coming! / Captured on the High Seas / Surprise at Yorktown (AIO Imagination Station Books) Imagination Station Special Pack: Books 1-6 (AIO Imagination Station Books) Imagination Station Books 3-Pack: Challenge on the Hill of Fire / Hunt for the Devil's Dragon / Danger on a Silent Night (AIO Imagination Station Books) An Introduction to the Old Testament, Second Edition: The Canon and Christian Imagination (Canon & Christian Imagination) Loyola Kids Book of Heroes: Stories of Catholic Heroes and Saints throughout History Heroes in Black History: True Stories from the Lives of Christian Heroes Carl and Karin Larsson : Creators of Swedish Style Kirby100: 100 Top Creators Celebrate Jack Kirby's Greatest Works Dancing with Cats: From the Creators of the International Best Seller Why Cats Paint The Vision of Modern Dance: In the Words of Its Creators The Vision of Modern Dance: In the Words of Its Creators [Paperback] [1998] (Author) Jean M. Brown, Naomi Mindlin, Charles Humphrey Woodford Boys of Steel: The Creators of Superman Kickstarter Launch Formula: The Crowdfunding Handbook for Startups, Filmmakers, and Independent Creators Family Trusts: A Guide for Beneficiaries, Trustees, Trust Protectors, and Trust Creators (Bloomberg) Hollywood Said No! : Orphaned Film Scripts, Bastard Scenes, and Abandoned Darlings from the Creators of 'Mr. Show' Super Boys: The Amazing Adventures of Jerry Siegel and Joe Shuster--the Creators of Superman

The Anunnaki of Nibiru: Mankind's Forgotten Creators, Enslavers, Saviors, and Hidden Architects of the New World Order

Contact Us

DMCA

Privacy

FAQ & Help