I love Joanna Schlip. She is an amazing make up artist, but this book is not for anyone who is looking for dramatic make up looks. All are very light looks, like for young girls that are just starting out with make up. So yes for the teenage beginner that wants to look very natural with almost no make up. I picked this because I saw Joanna in a make up dvd and her work in that was amazing! Joanna please do more videos or books with more info and dramatic looks.

This was a gift for my granddaughter[12] she was thrilled and couldn't wait to try out different looks, lovely colorful pages

- This book is AMAZING. Being a teen myself, I really love this book. It helps you deal with problems of self-esteem and gives you reassurance about yourself. Whenever you are feeling a little down, you just have to remember that you have to feel good inside, first, to have your confidence shine through your outside. It also has soooo many helpful hints that you couldn't get elsewhere. Joanna knows what she is talking about and gives a great flair of her "how-to-do's instead of just boring steps. The fantastic layouts and colors in the book add a sassiness that is essential to make me actually look at the book and pick it up in the first place. I also love the fact that they use "normal" girls, we can all get so caught up in the idea of thinking we can't look like the "it" stars, but with the help of this book you actually can. This book is just fantastic, nothing can top GLAMOUR GURLZ.

My daughter asked me to buy this book yesterday at B&N. I liked it...enough to send to my nieces (in middle school & high school). Finally, there's somebody else out there that validates what I've been saying all along--Stop with the racoon eyes and the 'hard' look. It's a good book...wish the author would follow up with something like this for the 45+ crowd. Just a suggestion.

I picked up this book for my niece at a local book store and paid quite a bit more for it than what is selling it for. The book itself is worth much more than even its list price. Loads of great photos and tons of inspirational and informational content. My niece hasn't put the book down, and I'm sure that I'll be buying her another copy come Christmas.

The 12 year old girl I gave it to for Christmas loved it. She did not put it down all afternoon. She liked the notable teens featured in the book and its makeup info.

I found this book very helpful. I got tips on how to make my makeup look better and I got tips for my confidence.
