

The book was found

ABA/AARP Checklist For Family Survivors: A Guide To Practical And Legal Matters When Someone You Love Dies

Synopsis

Grand Award Winner for Print Media in the APEX 2015 Competition!"An exceptional book. ...the content is first rate. Extremely well researched and well organized, each topic is well written, and carefully presented in as inviting a way as such a topic can be. If anything has been overlooked in this thorough book, we can't think what it might be. If you're planning on passing away, do your family a favor and get this book. :-)"

—APEX 2015 Judges Commentary

A practical resource for dealing with family matters upon death, this first-of-its-kind publication from the American Bar Association and AARP—the nation's leading associations in the law and the advancement of issues that matter most to people 50+ and their families—helps answer the myriad of questions surrounding what needs to be done following a loved one's passing. This must-have book guides you through the steps to wrap up the personal and financial affairs of the loved one who died. Although the ABA/AARP Checklist for Family Survivors: A Guide to Practical and Legal Matters When Someone You Love Dies does not provide legal advice, it does include legal reasons, implications and complications that cover a variety of questions loved ones face upon death. In each chapter, you'll find convenient checklists to help guide you through the difficult time.

Book Information

Paperback: 241 pages

Publisher: American Bar Association; Pap/Cdr edition (March 7, 2014)

Language: English

ISBN-10: 1627222820

ISBN-13: 978-1627222822

Product Dimensions: 7 x 0.6 x 10 inches

Shipping Weight: 13.6 ounces (View shipping rates and policies)

Average Customer Review: 4.4 out of 5 stars 121 customer reviews

Best Sellers Rank: #66,375 in Books (See Top 100 in Books) #3 in Books > Law > Family Law > Elder Law #12 in Books > Law > Estate Planning > Wills #17 in Books > Law > Estate Planning > Estates & Trusts

Customer Reviews

Sally Balch Hurme, J.D. is currently a Senior Project Manager with the AARP Health Law Education team. In her twenty years at AARP, she has advocated on a wide range of issues including consumer fraud, financial exploitation, elder abuse, surrogate decision making, advance care planning, health care fraud, and financial security. She received her B.A. from Newcomb College of Tulane University and her J.D. cum laude from Washington College of Law, American University. She lives in Alexandria, VA.

This book with its CD is useful for those who want to plan ahead and lessen the burden on those whom they will leave behind when they die. Having just gotten started on filling in the checklists on-line, I can tell you that it is a time-consuming job to gather the information and type it in. Hopefully, the result will be very helpful to family members when the time comes and they need this information to know where to find it and in many instances to have the information already in one place at their fingertips.

Great book! And if any of you are facing the Executor "End of life" obligations for one of your family, please think about getting this book. I live in a different state than my brother. We have been very distant from each other - both physically and emotionally. I don't know his friends, what his Will says, or really much about him, except that I will be the only member of the family who is willing to clean up the financial-legal (different state) paperwork and the physical possessions mess that is left when he passes on. Trying to do that is going to be expensive (flight and a hotel, funeral, etc.) and time consuming to handle for him. Hopefully, he can find someone there to help coordinate this for me, but if not - this book is a Godsend! I just hope I can convince him to fill it out with all this info that will be required when he passes on - to settle his estate. And keeping that info in this book and under lock and key is essential! This is a lot of info and someone interested in id theft would love to get their hands on it when it is filled out. ID safety and care - as usual these days - should be the rule. Good luck with it. I'd like to see everyone think ahead like this to the mess the "End of Life" stuff can be. This sure would make it all easier!

I've been fortunate to not yet face the death of a close family member. However, I've attended many funerals and have watched with sympathy and amazement at how mourning spouses and adult children are somehow able to take on the duties of planning and hosting a complicated, costly and logistically challenging multi-venue social event, which is what wakes, funerals, burials and other traditions of death often become. In addition to performing the work of an event planner, a surviving family member is also called upon to become a professional organizer, family therapist and forensic accountant. Sally Balch Hurme's "Checklist for Family Survivors" is an essential book to own if you think you'll ever be called upon to manage all that happens as soon as a loved one dies and, as importantly, be responsible for the details of the aftermath, which is when the deceased person's finances and possessions need to be sorted through, distributed or somehow resolved. Ideally, Hurme's book should be purchased and at least skimmed before actually needing to use it. That's my plan. I have the "Checklist for Family Survivors" and will try to remember where on my bookshelf I'm keeping it so, when or if the time comes, I can use and refer to the book and its checklists as needed. The "Checklist for Family Survivors" would be a very useful gift for a friend or relative who is dealing with the terminal illness of a loved one, or has just experienced a loss. Such a blunt present may require some advance conversation. A possible icebreaker: "I see how you're having to handle so much due to NAME's illness/death. I know a great book that could be of help. May I give you a copy?"

This book presents comprehensive and well-organized material along with to-do checklists and how-to information. It is extremely helpful.

Actually, I have not used the Guide yet - it's one of those workbooks which requires a lot of research into your own records to complete in order to be useful. But it appears to be well organized to be useful for a wide range of survivors - widow, adult children, military and non-military, and to ask cogent and reasonable questions to produce the kind of information needed to take timely actions after a death. Thus, very helpful to have required information at your fingertips, prepared ahead and ready for a later time when rational thought and wise decision-making are just not to be had.

Superior compilation of blank lists that you can fill in with all the personal information that will help keep you calm and secure when the time comes to handle your loved one's death. There are many checklists and many pages of questions pertaining to information and documents you should look for in order to close accounts, etc. Super Resource!

A great book. Took bad I didn't know to buy it before my dad passes. Some very useful information.

It has a lot of checklists as promised. I thought it could provide some examples, and maybe sample approaches for evaluating the services required for funerals/memorials. Would be nice to have testimonials or samples of ideas for memorials. It just made me feel that I needed a bit more info.

Download to continue reading...

ABA/AARP Checklist for Family Survivors: A Guide to Practical and Legal Matters When Someone

You Love Dies ABA/AARP Checklist for My Family: A Guide to My History, Financial Plans and Final Wishes ABA/AARP Checklist for Family Caregivers: A Guide to Making it Manageable The ABA Checklist for Family Heirs: A Guide to Family History, Financial Plans and Final Wishes I Will Remember You: What to Do When Someone You Love Dies - A Guidebook Through Grief for Teens AARP Meditations for Caregivers: Practical, Emotional, and Spiritual Support for You and Your Family How To Go On Living When Someone You Love Dies Sometimes Life Sucks: When Someone You Love Dies Loving Someone with PTSD: A Practical Guide to Understanding and Connecting with Your Partner after Trauma (The New Harbinger Loving Someone Series) What On Earth Do You Do When Someone Dies? When Someone Very Special Dies: Children Can Learn to Cope with Grief (Drawing Out Feelings Series) When Someone Dies: Find Comfort in Jesus The ABA Consumer Guide to Retiring Abroad: Legal, Financial, and Tax Issues and Solutions Loving Someone with Anxiety: Understanding and Helping Your Partner (The New Harbinger Loving Someone Series) Loving Someone with Bipolar Disorder: Understanding and Helping Your Partner (The New Harbinger Loving Someone Series) Loving Someone With DID: Navigating your relationship with someone who has Dissociative Identity Disorder The ABA Spanish Legal Phrasebook KATHY REICHS CHECKLIST AND SUMMARIES ALL BOOKS AND SERIES : READING LIST, KINDLE CHECKLIST AND STORY SUMMARIES FOR ALL KATHY REICHS FICTION (Ultimate Reading List Book 26) When Danger Hits Home: Survivors of Domestic Violence (Survivors: Ordinary People, Extraordinary Circumstances) The Wedding Attire Checklist for the Groom and Groomsmen (The Wedding Planning Checklist Series Book 9)

Contact Us

DMCA

Privacy

FAQ & Help