The Desire Map Planner From Danielle LaPorte 2018 Daily (Teals & Gold)

Synopsis

Created by Danielle LaPorte, bestselling author and member of Oprah's Super Soul 100, The Desire Map Planner is for women who want to put their soul on the agenda. What I will do to feel the way I want to feel...is the daily declaration you make with this planner. And with fresh daily Soul Prompts like, "What do you want to revolutionize?" "How do you want to feel in your body?" and sections for Gratitude notes and a weekly Stop Doing List this planner is where inner attunement meets outer attainment. And it's unlike anything on the market. Over five million people a month head to DanielleLaPorte.com for her advice and daily #Truthbombs. The Desire Map Planner Collection already has a raving fan base of women who want an agenda that includes all of who they are, not just another to-do list. The planner collection is based on The Desire Map book which sold over 140K copies in US & Canada, is translated into eight languages, and evolved into a journal series, a top 10 iTunes app, and a workshop curriculum with hundreds of licensed facilitators in fifteen countries. Like the popular Day Designer, The Desire Map Planner is lush, well-designed, and intuitively laid out to maximize efficiency, organization, and intentional time management. Both the Daily & Weekly editions come in simple charcoal or bright abstract art covers, both with gold foil accents. It's for the busy person who knows that a rich life is as much about being tuned-in as it is about checking off to-dos, who values positivity as much as productivity."

The Desire Map Planner has blended my passion for Journaling with my need to stay on task and, of course, remind me of my Core Desired Feelings. I can finally breathe while I plan! – Krista Kubie Carter, The Desire Map CustomerPersonally, I call it my GPS system - it is the thing that guides me daily when I am deciding what to do, not do and how I am feeling (or if I am not in alignment with my CDFs). I use it in my business and the impact on clients makes my heart beam. – Stacey Bout, The Desire Map CustomerI absolutely LOVE the planner - it’s beautiful to look at + hold and reminds me of what is most important in my life every day. I enjoy the prompts, quotes and the synchronicity in them all that just sets up the day perfectly. It’s become something of a sweet companion in my life this last 8 months... gently reminding me of my feelings behind my goals, soothing me about what I want to change and that I don’t need to ‘do’ anything about it.. just notice... and it sends me to bed with a kiss and gratitude about what the day has brought me. – Laura Berridge, The Desire Map CustomerTHE DESIRE MAP PLANNERS REVIEWS: – “The Desire Map Planner has ignited a part of my Soul that has been dormant my feelings, it’s a constant reminder to live NOW and know that it’s because we are human we need to seek out wisdom that only introspection and quiet times give us the guidance that only we can source from inside because no one knows us better. It reminds me that I started my journey as an entrepreneur because I love what I do and that changing lives is my why there is nothing better than guiding someone to their worth. It becomes a part of you and not just another planner because you put so much of yourself in it with the weekly prompts and gentle reminders and a year down the line, you can see how you have grown.

— Darlene Bayley — “The Desire Map Planner has not only influenced my life, it absolutely has changed it. I use the planner each day at work and find that when I make even 10 or 15 minutes to complete that day’s page, it “frames” my day so positively. I focus far, far more on the things that are most important (for work and pleasure) and that contribute to my Core Desired Feelings. Each day, I actively list my CDFs and jot down what I hope to do to achieve them that day. I love considering the soul prompts and things I’m grateful for. This planner is so much more than a calendar and to-do list. Instead, it puts me in a soul-feeding, creative, zen frame of mind that carries throughout my day.

— Karen Stensrud — “The Desire Map Planner has helped me focus each day on my Core Desired Feelings from a high level and also kept me on track with daily to-dos and weekly tasks. I love the blank space at the end of each week to capture inspiration, ideas, and new biz concepts so they are all in one convenient place. Basically, in nutshell, the planner is holistic — I call myself a Holistic Lawyer & Legal Coach and I love that it encompasses my WHOLE life — not just my personal life, not just my business life, but ALL of me. It’s a one-stop planner. LOVE.

— Lisa Fraley — “When I use the planner, I feel less self-judgment and more joy. I feel the blessings of my humanity and give myself permission to feel *what I want* instead of what I should want. Writing it down somehow makes it more possible. This planner keeps me accountable in a loving way, without the self-criticism. And then I can look back and think — “Whoa! Look how much I’ve accomplished! It was so worth it! Or — “Wow, that was a powerful lesson to learn!

— Jennifer Schmid

Danielle LaPorte is an invited member of Oprah’s inaugural Super Soul 100, a group who, in Oprah Winfrey’s words, “is uniquely connecting the world together with a spiritual energy that matters.” She is author of The Fire Starters Sessions, and The Desire Map — the book that turned into a day planner and journal system, a top 10 iTunes app, and an international workshop program with licensed facilitators. Named one of the “Top 100 Websites for Women” by Forbes, over 5 million visitors go to DanielleLaPorte.com monthly for her daily #Truthbombs and what’s been called “the best place online for kickass spirituality.” Entrepreneur Magazine calls Danielle, “equal parts poet and entrepreneurial badass | edgy, contrarian | loving and inspired.

It started in 2016 as just a place to track my daily rituals that would help keep me focused and grounded- meditation, exercise, self-care. I had another planner at the time for my biz. But the format of the Desire Map Planner and the desire to simplify made me use only the Desire Map planner in 2017. It's become a part of my morning ritual. It travels with me. I use it for accountability, tracking, reminders. It's not perfect, but it is broad enough and great enough that it works fabulously. I don't promote anything that I don't 100% believe in. I love that this has space for gratitude and accountability, soul prompts for some minor journaling, and a daily schedule (on the daily planners). These planners sell out every year which I think speaks volumes! They also make great gifts. As you use your planner, you'll find shift happening for the positive in your life. It's pretty interesting. So those who want to stay stuck, consider yourself warned!

Ã Â I am a planner addict - seriously, I have at least 6 that are visible in my office as I write this. I have tried them all, and NONE of them have stuck like this one has. Admittedly, I don't use it to plan my days, because I have a team that includes virtual teammates, and they need to see it too. So having a paper copy isn't really feasible. I keep appointments and such in Google calendar, but for setting my intentions for my days, weeks, months and years - this is AMAZING. More details in the video!

Where to even start? In 2017 I started using the Desire Map Planner based on the recommendation of a friend. At the time I was using online calendars, a notebook for to do lists, a gratitude journal, and a whole lot of post it notes for goals and intentions (which were often lost or forgotten). With the Desire Map Planner Danielle LaPorte has helped me to start my days with a focus on reflection, gratitude, and the positive changes I'm making in my life while still keeping the practical aspects of my schedule and to do's right there in front of me. The Top 3 gets me to really look at my to do list and figure out - what three things are a) most important? b) will make it a successful day even if I only complete them? c) going to help me towards my goals today? With a monthly layout - I can see what's coming up and plan out my month. The Monthly check in makes my core desired feelings, my goals/intentions, and my steps to get there a regular part of my life instead of a new years resolution forgotten in a few days. Another small win every day - tearing off the corner of the page and reading the word written there.

This planner is super practical and beautifully designed. Each day has its own page with sections that include a 'to do list', top 3 priorities, soul prompts, what you'd like to let go of and space for recording what you are grateful for. It has tabs for each month so you can easily get to the section of the relevant month and also a double page spread at the beginning of each month with all days that include information about public holidays (US, Canada, UK and Australia) plus the moon cycles like the full moon and new moon. As someone who juggles a couple of planners right now (one for my business and one to record my gratitude practice), this planner will most definitely combine the two for me in 2018. I am looking forward to be using it soon.

Ã Â I'm a notorious planner girl...you know the one who writes things down just to do them & check them off (or writing down what I've already done in order to check them off). I was obsessed with to-dos....until I realized no where in those lists were time for me and how I wanted to feel/be/remain amidst the craziness of daily life. This planner provides that. Each day, I get journal prompts for me to remember my soul...not just the actual top things I need to get done. I'm reminded of my core desired feelings and I can lavishly look over words like "nourish, vitality, vibrant, radiant, etc" and know I'm not just a do-er....I'm a being as well. Thanks Danielle for you've covered the bases. You give me a monthly overview, so I can see the month at a glance, then you take me to my days where the months/years/time periods are created. You remind me it's the way we feel which drives all we do. I'm never going back to regular planners again!!

Ã Â Absolutely the best planning system I have ever used. Let's get straight to the obvious - it's gorgeous and you feel inspired to use it. When you open the planner you immediately notice the quality of the cover and the pages. I work with the daily planner and the tabs are great to see a month in advance. Now getting into the nitty gritty. You are probably here because you want to feel amazing while you are working towards some goal. This is the perfect way to infuse soulfulness into goal setting. You will be inspired by the prompts, the core desired feeling words, and the look and feel of the planner. Absolute must have. HIGHLY RECOMMEND IT! I did a video review so you can see and know more.

Ã Â This is the best daily planner out there! What I love about Danielle LaPorte's 2018 Daily Planner is that it invites you to organize your life, weekly goals, and to-do lists around the way you want to FEEL. Your core desired feelings. It's got all of the fixings of a traditional planner but it adds a hefty dose of soul and inspiration. This planner gives you space to create daily to-do lists, but also gives you space to record what your heart and soul wants to feel, what inspires you, what you're grateful for, and what you want to STOP doing to create more space for what you love. It has a beautiful cover and is easily portable. It's a heartfelt compliment to my task-oriented Google calendar and gives me space to journal and dream as well. LOVE IT!
