Synopsis

Kabbalah For Dummies presents a balanced perspective of Kabbalah as an “umbrella” for a complex assemblage of mystical Jewish teachings and codification techniques. Arthur Kurzweil is known as America's foremost Jewish genealogist. The author/editor of several books, he lectures extensively on the subjects of Judaica, magic, and mysticism.

It's a Great Book. But we need more info. Describe the Tree of Life separately in the four wolds, the Qlipboth, pathworking, and an explanation of all those obscure Qabalistic terms.

I am Christian and can honestly say this book dispelled all of my fears about real Kabbalah and it actually made me have interest in it. Many of the teaching are similar to what Christ taught but from the perspective of the Torah. Great book for those seeking more spiritual light.

I am enjoying this introduction to Kabbalah. I find it fairly easy to understand and thorough. Seems like a great book for beginners like me.

Kabbalah is always intriguing. Moreover, complex. Even though it says "for dummies" one must be a smart dummy to capture and continue further readings.

Good introductory book by Kurzweil.

Basic explanation and a good book.

Excellent
