As an SAT/ACT Tutor, I'm always looking for new and effective sources to supplement my work. Author Nielson Phu admirably pares things down to the essentials in a very pragmatic way. This is just what time-starved students need. It doesn't eliminate the fact that students must try and practice the methods outlined, but it does give them very smart guidance on how to improve results.

When I first ordered the ebook, I was skeptical about how much a few pages could help me.

However, I was instantly drawn into the book in the first two short chapters. The author pulled me in with anecdotes that related to my struggles with the ACT essays(i.e. how he was a B student in HS English, but still managed to score a perfect 36!)The book includes a highly organized outline with college-level words implemented to help students who are poor essay writers(like me). Furthermore, it also provides easy- to-understand versatile examples, which I have been struggling to find on the internet. Moreover, when in case those fail to answer the essay prompt, Mr.Phu goes into detail about what to do from there. Although I have not taken the ACT yet, I strongly recommend purchasing this book as a must have!! only wish that Mr. Phu would create a ACT Reading book.

Good Book, Very Quick read with sage advise to make the shift from SAT essay to ACT writing component. 10/12 first time out!

I got a 12, and it was thanks to this great book!

Great book. Short, too the point, and very effective. It teaches you both how to game the essay and how to write better in general. Received a 12 in all sections of the essay.

It is no secret that the ACT is necessary for college admission. This book delivers clear and concise insight on how to tackle the written part of the exam.

The essay template is a very useful tool and the ideas about generating specific examples has really changed the way I help my kids prepare for the ACT essay.

I bought it for my son. He said it is quite good book, very helpful.
