I needed this book for a college level American Literature course. I was excited to take this course since I have been leaning towards and possibly majoring in some form of literature. The varying excerpts included in this anthology are wonderful, It covers from Native American's onward. I also appreciate that every author introduced is started with a personal history and background so you get a more full idea of where this writer was coming from and can better understand their point of view in writing. My only critique is that the pages are thin and for an eager reader as myself it makes it a gentle process to flip pages. I also enjoy highlighting passages as my professor speaks and it bleeds through a bit too easily. Otherwise I am very please with this anthology!

Text book required for class. I got the print edition, because it was $30 cheaper than the ebook, which I find frustrating. I would have preferred the ebook because this text is super heavy. This has most of my reading for my American Lit class. If you are looking for an anthology of newer material, I highly suggest "The Best American Non-Required Reading" currently 2016 is the newest out.

Literature 1914 > 1945 isn't going to change from 7th to 8th or 9th into infinity! just can't beat a penny for the material regardless of the $3.99 shipping charge - sellers & got to make some $; they've earn it in this case.Win - Win scenario here, for buyers, seller, and the middle man.

Lots of great texts within this anthology, which also shows how the literary canon continues to grow. The book was also in exceptional shape for being used. The page corners were slightly bent, but it still looks almost new. I'm very satisfied with this purchase!

I received volume c instead of volume d. This is the wrong volume for the class, I'm very disappointed. The advertisement was for the wrong volume. This book is no use to me and I can't return it.

i paid the price of the new book , and This is what i get for that Price . I'm so upset with this

Bought the wrong book for my class but other than my mistake, its an over all good book
