Customer Reviews

The other reviews of this book are wildly overstated. The book is 60 pages, double-spaced. Each page has 2 things to do. No maps, no pictures, no logistics details like address, web site, telephone, etc. It reads like a long email from a friend, NOT a travel guide. There are some "off the beaten path" suggestions, but many are routine ("Visit the British Museum"). The typical entry is less than 100 words. I did get value from this book, and will likely try some of its suggestions, but buyer beware--this is a very thin travel guide.

Awesome book. I like this book. This book totally great. London has a fantastic stand-up-comedy scene, and one place that we go to again and again for belly laughs is the Soho Theater. I highly recommend this book. By the way, I have enjoyed this book.

This was the perfect travel guide for our recent trip to London! It is easy to use, Enjoyed the brief review of history for some of the larger sites. This book has helped me finalize my list of things to see very nicely. just awesome . i really love this book,

Great great book bought this copy for a friend. London is a very beautiful city, but it's even more so when you manage to take in the city from a height. this book is Great travel guide for london.

I always wanted to travel London , this book tells about the coolest places one can visit in London , this is definitely a good book for people who are planing to visit London

I really injoyed reading this book . This book containg incredible festivals, whether you want to party on the streets of notting Hill for carnival, or youÃ¢Â¢Â¢d prefer to chow down at a London food festival the most thrilling outdoor activities, such as sliding down the worldÃ¢Â¢Â¢s tallest slide tunnel, and scaling the roof of a huge concert arena.

Excellent walking tours, with a few deviations to fit in some other highlights, made for a wonderful 5 days in London! It would great if the digital version of the book could send the walking tour to the map apps, rather than having to flip between the two to ensure you are on the correct street!

What a waste of $$...
