Moon Costa Rica (Moon Handbooks)

Synopsis

This full-color guide includes vibrant photos and detailed maps to help with trip planning. Award-winning travel writer Christopher P. Baker shows travelers the way to the best of Costa Rica; whether it's surfing the beaches of Golfo Dulce, hiking in Corcovado National Park, or dining in the upscale Escazu barrio in San José. Along with his in-depth coverage, Baker includes unique trip ideas for a variety of interests, such as "Sweet Retreats," "Best Beaches," and "Adrenaline Rush." Complete with details that range from where to surf to which spots are the best for seeing wildlife, Moon Costa Rica gives travelers the tools they need to create a more personal and memorable experience. Coverage includes: San José, The Central Highlands, The Caribbean Coast, The Northern Zone, Guanacaste and the Northwest, The Nicoya Peninsula, Central Pacific, Golfo Dulce and the Osa Peninsula, South-Central Costa Rica

Christopher P. Baker was born and raised in Yorkshire, England. He received a BA in geography from University College, London, and masters degrees in Latin American studies from Liverpool University and in education from the Institute of Education, London University. He began his writing career in 1978 as a contributing editor on Latin America for Land & Liberty, a London-based political journal. In 1980, he received a Scripps-Howard Foundation Scholarship in Journalism to attend the University of California, Berkeley. Since 1983, Christopher, the 2008 Lowell Thomas Travel Journalist of the Year, has made his living as a professional travel writer, photographer, lecturer, and tour guide. He specializes in Cuba and Costa Rica, about which he has written six books each, including Moon Cuba; his most recent coffee-table book, Enchanting Costa Rica. He is also the author of the Costa Rica Pura Vida! travel app. He has contributed to more than 150 publications worldwide, including CNN Travel, National Geographic Traveler, Robb Report, and The Los Angeles Times. He is a Getty Images and National Geographic contributing photographer. Christopher has been profiled in USA Today, appears frequently on radio and television talk shows and as a guest-lecturer aboard cruise ships, and has spoken at the National Press Club, World Affairs Council, and on National Geographic Live. He is a National Geographic Resident Expert and leads tours of Costa Rica, Panamá, Colombia, and Cuba for National Geographic Expeditions, as well as group motorcycle tours of these destinations for MotoDiscovery and Motolombia. Christopher promotes himself through his website: christopherpbaker.com.

Very cool info. I noticed one problem though, my friend who is a tour guide there looked up his tour place from book when we arrived to Costa Rica and said the prices of his tours were incorrect...Probably outdated...

Arrived ahead of time. Excellent information on hidden Costa Rica. Would recommend to anyone who is thinking of going there.

Great guide book, well organized and up to date, good detailed maps

This was a very disappointing book. I went to Costa Rica in January, 2016, and took the 2nd Edition (Dec., 2015) release with me. So many times the information was just plain wrong and misleading (e.g., venues not listed where they should be, with appropriate hours), including maps of cities (e.g., Quepos!!!). Did the author even bother to fact check???? The book is only acceptable as a general guide. And don't get me started on the "star" attractions presented..... Reeks of money changing hands.
