Maldives (Bradt Travel Guide)

Synopsis

The original Bradt guide to Maldives was the first ever international guide to this island paradise. This fourth edition contains new material on recently developed island resorts and a thorough update on all information in the previous edition. It caters for the extensive visitor base of diving and spa holidaymakers whilst providing special details for the style-conscious, luxury seeker including super-luxury class accommodation and tailor-made tours.

'Excellent.' Maldives Travel 'Not just another guidebook.the authors give their personal accounts and experiences which makes for more insightful reading.' Sunday Leader

The islands of Maldives are perhaps the quintessential holiday dream. Enticed by white sandy beaches fringed with coral lagoons, travelers here seek true relaxation, with accommodation in beach cottages or individual overwater bungalows surrounded by the clear turquoise waters of the Indian Ocean. In this second edition of Maldives: The Bradt Travel Guide, Royston Ellis offers further insight into the people who make these islands so welcoming. With coverage of recently opened resort islands, details of boat trips and diving opportunities, and suggestions for entertainment and shopping, this guide is invaluable. There is information on choosing your resort island, getting around the islands, including cruises, diving, snorkeling and other watersports, in-depth cover of Male', Maldivian people and culture and communicating in Dhivehi.
