I am a children's ministry director for a small church. Sometimes we have to combine several age groups together, so I wanted a curriculum plan that combined a lesson for all the ages. I read the description of this All Together Now series and it sounded perfect. What a disappointment! When it arrived I reviewed several lessons; each lesson plan called for outrageous props, supplies, and tools that a small church classroom just doesn't have. It wasn't even the outrageous items needed, it was also the amount of items needed for just one lesson. For example, several lessons needed

"teen actors" and costumes along with several other props that were just ridiculous. The description definitely said you had to gather a FEW, EVERY Day items for these lesson, but this was not true. For this reason, we returned the book.

I needed a Sunday School lesson plan for our small country church and it's one room class set up. I have children from 5 to 14 years old. This works really well. I sometimes have to adapt the lesson a bit to make it work for our situation. I always enjoy the teacher's in depth study at the beginning of each lesson. It helps to have some of that background to help bring the lesson to life for the kiddos. I would recommend this lesson plan to other churches who don't have enough students or teachers to have more than one class. This works!!

This curriculum has been a blessing to me and my Children's Church class. It is fun and thorough in it's teaching. I like the way it lays out each lesson including needed supplies.

By far my favorite lesson book for multi ages--I use it for Children's church instead of Sabbath School. The kids love it--parents are amazed too!

our teachers love it

Lots of good ideas for our preschool through elementary age Sunday School.

A must read for leader and members of any body.
